President Loretta Ehrlund called the meeting to order. She emphasized that Aggie Moms take care of our kids and of each other.

Dr Stickney from the Veterinary school made an interesting presentation about the school and the quality of education it offers, as well as services provided.

The general meeting followed. President Ehrlund reminded everyone that we follow Roberts Rules of Order. She noted that meeting minutes are available on the website, and encouraged everyone to visit the site.

Rosemary Vargas presented the treasurer report, as Kathy Griffith was unable to stay at the meeting. Rosemary advised that questions could be addressed to Kathy via email.

Ways and Means. Diann Arispe discussed the cookbook sale. Purchase of two books receives the added bonus of a Reveille ornament.

Evita was very nice and fun.

Suggestions for additional fundraisers were solicited.

Joyce Thompson talked about the December meeting. It will be fun, with a Chinese gift exchange ($10 limit). There will also be a choral group, and Joyce requested anyone with information about a Santa to let her know.

Pat Smith reminded everyone that gold jewelry is being discontinued, and this is a last chance to order it. Also, last chance to order Aggie shirts this year. Pat also mentioned that Elephant Walk is coming up, and there is an elephant charm to commemorate this event.

Braggs were solicited, and one of the moms mentioned that an Aggie choir had performed here in San Antonio along with UTSA's choir and one other. The performance was terrific.

Two door prizes were awarded, names were not announced.
