

Aggie Moms' General Meeting Minutes
October 4, 2011

President Annette Mollere opened the meeting with a welcome to all present, and she led the Pledge of Allegiance and prayer. She then described the success of the Silver Stars event, and next announced the AT&T golf tournament fundraiser. She encouraged everyone to distribute tickets. Each ticket that is turned in at the event counts toward our success. Sandra McNutt encouraged everyone to carefully distribute them to people who they think will actually use them.

Laura Hatten asked everyone to bring goodies to the next meeting, in preparation for stuffing goody bags on November 30. She requested that drinks be held until the date of stuffing. Delivery will be December 1.

DaMary Henry encouraged registration and attendance at the Aggie Moms Camp, and asked for ideas for a theme. She has stadium seats for sale - $40 each, and some were available at the meeting.

Door prizes and student drawing winners were also awarded.

Next, speaker Nick Zuniga was introduced. Nick spoke about Greek life at A&M. It is a growing population, with active alumni. The staff includes 7, and covers education for risk management, event planning, leadership development, and working with the national organizations. The Governing Councils are student-led. All activities are funded by student service fees.

Greeks created a service activity during Spring Break a few years ago. The initial trip was to Galveston, the past 2 years have been to Louisiana, and they are negotiating with the University of Alabama for a joint project there in 2012. Greek organizations embody Aggie values. Books with additional information were provided.

An announcement was made about the Whiteout/Maroon towel event coming up October 15 for the Baylor game. It is to benefit victims of the Bastrop fire, and more information can be found at aggiewildfirerelief.com.

Braggs were shared.

Ann Huddleston announced that popcorn samples were available, for consideration of selling at the Nov and/or Dec meetings. She asked for input. Also, she mentioned the availability of Aggie Dad and Aggie Grandma shirts.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
